No writing experience necessary!

Kathrin Seitz, writer, producer and professional coach, has more than thirty years experience in the publishing, television and film industries in New York City and Los Angeles. She has been working with private clients and teaching Method Writing classes for six years in New York City, Newport, RI, Malabar, FL, and mid-coast Maine.

Method Writing, like Method Acting, stresses process, teaching the writer to work from the inside out. Kathrin has created a uniquely effective approach to Method Writing by combining her own rich experience with Jack Grapes's Method (jackgrapes.com). Jack Grapes, the founder of Method Writing is LA's award-winning playwright and member of Chicago's Second City.

“Kathrin has an uncanny ability to see the gold in your writing and encourage you to draw it out. When you combine this vision and care with her fireball personality, her wide-ranging creative background, her womanly intuition and her fabulous sense of humor, you’ve got a combination that can’t be beat. In an industry filled with dust, Kathrin Seitz is a wild ruby!” –Victoria LaBalme, Writer/Performing Artist and Coach

It's not too late

To open your depths by plunging into them

And drink in the life that reveals itself quietly there. – RILKE
